Why the Western Costa del Sol?

Our area is strategically located close to three international airports—Málaga, Gibraltar, and Jerez. It is also a fantastic base to explore the surrounding area. Seville, Tarifa, Granada, Gibraltar and even Morocco make fantastic day trips.

For winter escapes, the Sierra Nevada ski resort is just two hours away. Sun, sea, skiing—this is Costa del Sol living at its finest.

Read on to find out about each the key areas we cover Alcaidesa, Sotogrande, Manilva, Casares and Estepona.

The Beauty of Alcaidesa

SPAIN

Near the Southern-most point of the Costa del Sol, next to Sotogrande

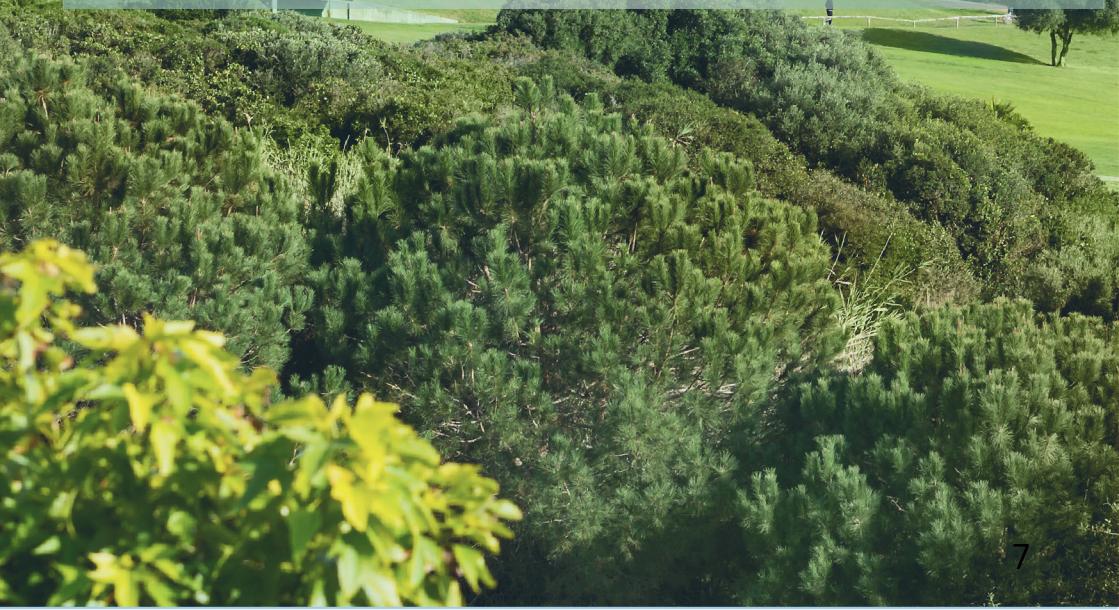

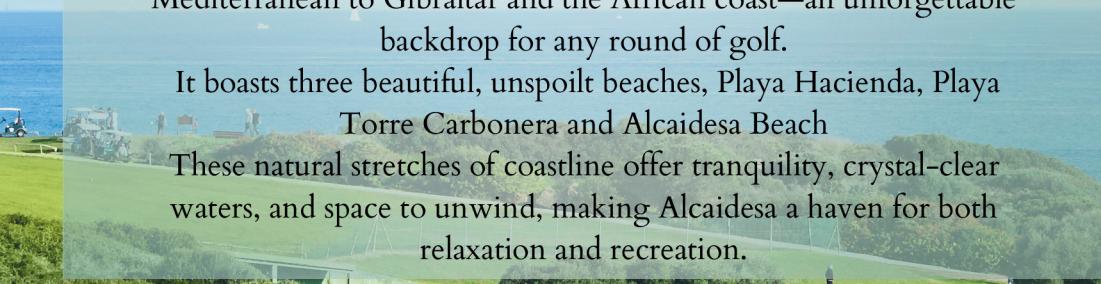

Tucked between the sparkling Mediterranean and the lush Andalusian hills, La Alcaidesa is a picturesque haven. With its stunning sea views, uncrowded beaches, and charming village atmosphere, it's the perfect hideaway for those seeking peace, privacy, and natural beauty.

Strategically located just a short drive from Gibraltar, La Alcaidesa is a commuter's dream, an ideal choice for professionals working across the border. Its proximity to Gibraltar Airport—with daily direct flights to and from the UK—also makes it effortless for weekend escapes or international travel.

Alcaidesa is home to two exceptional golf courses: the Alcaidesa Links and Alcaidesa Heathland. Set in a truly privileged location, these courses are just steps from the sea, offering stunning views across the Mediterranean to Gibraltar and the African coast—an unforgettable backdrop for any round of golf.

It boasts three beautiful, unspoilt beaches, Playa Hacienda, Playa Torre Carbonera and Alcaidesa Beach

These natural stretches of coastline offer tranquility, crystal-clear waters, and space to unwind, making Alcaidesa a haven for both relaxation and recreation.
